

CAREERS IN LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Your world starts here

Your world starts in your community and so can your career! A local government career gives you the opportunity to use your education and leadership skills to build and enhance your community.

From designing parks to developing policies and programs on environmental and social issues, local government professionals change the world right in their own backyards. By working in local government you will see first-hand the fruits of your labor in the form of new buildings, prosperous downtowns and delivery of human and recreation services that improve community life.

If you are innovative, energetic, and thrive on challenge, then start improving your world now! Cities, special districts and transit authorities throughout the region are looking for future leaders in such fields as Law, Engineering, Public Administration, Finance, Information Technology, Human Resources, Urban Planning, Parks and Recreation Management and Library Science.

Not only do we offer interesting work, we pay well and don't come with all the red tape. To find out more about available positions, visit the websites of local agencies throughout the region or go to CalOpps at www.calopps.org.
