THE CITY

The City of East Palo Alto is a beautiful community located in the heart of the Silicon Valley and is uniquely positioned to maximize its potential as a significant city in the region. Founded by speculators and farmers in 1849, the town was originally named Ravenswood. In 1983, the residents decided to incorporate as East Palo Alto. The population is approximately 31,500, with an area of 2.5 square miles. It is in close proximity to the San Francisco and San Jose International Airports. East Palo Alto has excellent private schools and a progressive public school district, a culturally diverse community with a rich historical heritage, and a friendly residential community with a small town family-oriented atmosphere.

THE DEPARTMENT

The Building and Code Enforcement Division is a crucial part of East Palo Alto's Community Development Department responsible for ensuring that the construction and development, quality of life, permit issuance, plan review, field construction inspections, and enforcement of municipal codes complies with applicable federal, state laws rules regulations and EPA's municipal code. The Building and Code Enforcement Division ensures that construction projects adhere to the California Building Standards Codes, specifically outlined in Title 24 of California's regulations, and Code Enforcement is responsible for enforcing EPA's municipal code.
