LIBRARY ASSOCIATE
Represented

DEFINITION

Under general supervision, provides excellent customer service, performs a variety of paraprofessional duties that follow established procedures and involve a variety of library support services such as reference, readers' advisory, and collection maintenance and management; provides direct patron support through instruction and aid in the use of library resources; provides supplemental circulation services; may be assigned as the Person-in-Charge in the absence of higher-level Library staff; and performs related duties as required.

SUPERVISION RECEIVED AND EXERCISED

Receives general supervision from a Central Branch Manager, Branch Manager, or other management or supervisory staff. May provide work direction, training, and functional supervision to clerical or technical staff and/or volunteers.

CLASS CHARACTERISTICS

This is the journey-level class in the Library Associate series, functioning as support staff to a Branch Manager or Librarian by assisting patrons with reference questions and readers' advisory. Direct customer service is further provided through instruction and aid in the use of library resources including the catalog, databases, and equipment, as well as through supplemental circulation services as needed. Incumbents participate in managing the collection through assisting in ordering activities. Employees in this classification also regularly assist with collection maintenance by determining condition of materials and mending, discarding, or labeling as needed. Participation in shelf maintenance activities including shelving, arranging, and weeding is also common. At this level incumbents work independently within identified parameters and resolve problems of diverse scope where analysis requires evaluation of identifiable factors. Performance expectations include the application of broad job knowledge in performance of the full range of responsibilities within the classification. This class is distinguished from the Senior Library Associate class in that the latter performs a variety of complex paraprofessional library support duties of a specialized nature, provides lead direction, or may be assigned responsibility for the administration of a Special Collection or oversight of a Rural Station.
