The City of San Bruno is located in San Mateo County, and is only 12 miles south of San Francisco. An ethnically and culturally diverse city, San Bruno maintains a small-town atmosphere within a large metropolitan area.

The City is responsible for a wide range of public services including Fire, Police, Cable TV, Water and Wastewater.

Located along Highway 101 and Interstate 280, the City enjoys easy access to the vast cultural, educational and recreational opportunities of the San Francisco Bay Area including museums, galleries, theaters and access to professional sports teams including the Giants, 49ers, A's, and Sharks venues, the Golden Gate National Recreation Area, and the San Francisco Bay. Educational opportunities include numerous community colleges, as well as UC Berkeley, Stanford University, University of San Francisco, and San Francisco State University.

The San Bruno BART and CalTrain stations make it easy to use public transportation to access the Peninsula, San Francisco and beyond.
