SELECTION PROCESS:

Applications will be screened for completeness. After an initial screening of applications, those applicants that meet the minimum qualifications and appear to best meet the Department’s need will be invited to participate further in the recruitment process and will be contacted for an oral panel interview. Candidates must receive a score of 70% or higher on the oral interview exam to be placed on the initial eligibility list. A limited number of candidates from the eligibility list will be invited for an interview with the Police Commander and Police Chief. Depending upon the number of candidates in each recruitment set, this process may be altered. After a mutual interest has been established, a thorough background investigation will be conducted, including fingerprinting and a polygraph. Upon successfully passing the background investigation, candidates must successfully complete a psychological evaluation, medical evaluation, including drug testing, and provide proof of legal right to work in the U.S. prior to appointment. The Police Chief will make the final recommendation for appointment.
